Springfield Public Library announces the 2012 Teen Short Story Contest Winners.

Thirty-three teens submitted stories for the 2012 Springfield Public Library Teen Short Story Contest, 11 in the high school age division and 22 in the middle school division. Entries were to contain the phrase, “May the odds be ever in your favor,” and contain a maximum of 1500 words. The entries were judged by a panel of librarians.

Congratulations to this year’s winners:

Laurel Eddins, high school winner

Marina Hedlund, middle school winner

Winning the high school division is Laurel Eddins from South Eugene High School. Receiving an Honorable Mention in the high school division is Anna Miller from Academy of Arts and Academics High School.

Winning the middle School division is Marina Hedlund from Briggs Middle School.

The division winners each received a $50 prize sponsored by the Springfield Arts Commission.
