SEPTEMBER 13 DOWNTOWN SPRINGFIELD ART WALK

Every 2nd Friday an art walk is held at many galleries and businesses in Downtown Springfield.

September's 2nd Friday Downtown Springfield Art Walk is being held in conjunction with the Nick Symmonds Springfield 800 meter road race. Come downtown for two great events at once! After the race, stop by the art walk stops to enjoy great art, live music and free refreshments.

Here is a sampling of the many offerings at the September 13th 2nd Friday Downtown Springfield Art Walk:

City Hall Gallery: The Springfield Arts Commission will host a reception for artist Rachel McLain. Rachel McLain's macro photography explores the natural world from a creative viewpoint. Ms. McLain will be present at the reception. Live acoustic music will be provided by Brian Cutean on the guitar. Light refreshments will be offered.

Springfield Museum: Opening reception for the September exhibit: Back to School: Springfield's first schools." This exhibit will examine the educational experience in Springfield during the 1800s, when our first public schools were opened. Light refreshments will be offered.

Emerald Art Center: Artist reception for the Purely Pastel Artists of Western Oregon and the Watercolor Society of Oregon. Refreshments will be offered.

Haven & Sweety's: Artist reception for David Putzier. Refreshments will be offered at Haven.

Our Sewing Room: Exhibit of beautiful quilts created by local artists.

Stop by Downtown Springfield to enjoy art at these locations and many more! Pick up a map to see all of the many locations participating in September's Downtown Springfield Art Walk.
