Tweens & Teens at the Springfield Public Library DIY Fireworks

Tweens and teens, join us on Monday, June 30th at 2:00 pm in the library fountain plaza and make your own fireworks. Okay, so not exactly fire fireworks, but we will be setting off (very) small explosions. Everyone who attends will receive an LED slingshot helicopter toy (while supplies last). It's free and all supplies will be provided. Best for ages 10 and up.

Teens@2 will happen every Monday through the summer at 2:00. Come do something fun, hang-out, be creative and have a snack.

Worth 1,000 Words: Saturday Stories @ SPL

*Pictures are worth 1,000 words in any language!
Join us in sharing wordless picture books and songs in multiple languages.*

Join us Saturday, July 5th at 1:00pm in the Children's Storytime Area of the Springfield Library for a very special bilingual storytime and creative activity following. Together we will explore wordless, Spanish, and English picture books and demonstrate how any book can be shared, regardless of language. The program is designed with families in mind; children ages 2-7 will get the most from this event but all are very welcome. Following the story session, families will create their very own books! This is the second of three Saturday Stories sessions this summer and there is no charge or registration required. See you soon!
