Main-McVay Transit Study Stakeholder Advisory Committee Meeting

The Main-McVay Transit Study Stakeholder Advisory Committee will hold its next meeting Tuesday, July 29 from 3:00 to 5:00 PM. The meeting will focus on initial design considerations for a range of future corridor transit options. Meetings are open to the public.

The public is welcomed to view and comment on initial concept designs in three ways:

- Tuesday, July 29 during the Main-McVay Transit Study Stakeholder Advisory Committee meeting;
- Thursday, July 31 from 2:00 to 5:00 PM and Friday, August 1 from 8:00 AM to 3:00 PM at Springfield City Hall in the Library Meeting Room; or
- July 31 through August 8 online at www.ourmainstreetspringfield.org. Use comment form to submit comments.

Background: The City of Springfield in partnership with Lane Transit District convened the Stakeholder Advisory Committee to explore transit options that address and enhance all modes of travel along the Main Street-McVay Highway Corridor.

The Stakeholder Advisory Committee is an advisory body to the Governance Team for the Main-McVay Transit Study. The overall goal of the Main-McVay Transit Study is to analyze the need, technical viability, and public support for potential Main Street-McVay Highway transit improvements.

What: Springfield's Main-McVay Transit Study Stakeholder Advisory Committee

Who: Springfield residents, and business and property owners.

When: July 29 from 3:00 to 5:00 PM.

Where: Springfield Justice Center, 230 Fourth Street in Springfield
