City Welcomes Triem as Presiding Judge

The City of Springfield is welcoming Susan Triem as the next Presiding Judge for the Springfield Municipal Court.

She has most recently been in private practice but has also served as a Lane County Assistant District Attorney, City of Eugene Prosecutor, and an Administrative Law Judge for the State of Oregon.

Triem is a graduate of the University of Idaho School of Law.

"I'm honored and very excited to serve the community as presiding judge," Judge Susan Triem said. "I look forward to working with Judge Kim and Judge Williams to run a fair, equitable, and efficient court."

As Presiding Judge, Triem will serve as the judicial officer of the City responsible for the exercising jurisdiction of all crimes, violations, and resulting actions authorized by ordinances of the City including adopted State criminal and vehicle codes. This position reports directly to Council and will be under the guidance of the Finance/Judiciary Committee.

The Municipal Court is located on the second floor of the Springfield Justice Center.
