ADAPTIVE GARDENING DEMONSTRATION AND IDEAS

Presented by Master Gardener Dona Clarke

On Thursday, Feb. 24 at 4:30pm in the Springfield Library Meeting Room, the community is invited to a demonstration about adaptive gardening techniques. Presenting will be master gardener Dona Clarke.

Ms. Clarke is part of the OSU Lane County Master Gardener Adaptive Gardening Committee. The committee provides presentations, demonstrations, consultations, and advice on adapting gardening practices to be enjoyable, safe, and successful for people of all ages, levels of ability, interest, and needs.

Topics of discussion will include adaptive tools, garden structures for accessibility, garden site analysis and planning, and plant selection for specialty gardens such as low maintenance, edibles-only, and sensory stimulation.

The presentation will be held in the Library Meeting Room; free.
