SpringFilm: MOVIE & DISCUSSION SERIES AT THE LIBRARY

*Adults are invited to watch The Apostle and stay for a discussion*

On Saturday, February 12, 2011 at 2pm, the community is invited to a new film series at the Springfield Library called SpringFilm. February's screening will be the film The Apostle (1998) directed by and starring Robert Duvall. After watching the film, audience members are invited to stay for a facilitated discussion.

The film follows an emotionally charged story about Sonny (Robert Duvall), an earnest, charismatic minister who finds his world crumbling around him when he discovers that his wife Jessie (Farrah Fawcett) is in love with Horace (Todd Allen), a younger minister. Sony falls prey to violence and obsession and is forced to leave everything and everyone behind after he puts Horace in a coma. Directed by Robert Duvall; Duvall also earned an Academy Award nomination for his performance. 1998.

The film and discussion will be held in the Library Meeting Room; free.
