

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

March 18, 2011

Contacts: Niel Laudati 541-726-3780

~ Media Advisory ~

PENNY'S PUPPETS AT THE SPRINGFIELD LIBRARY

Springfield Library presents this free event for the whole family

Penny's Puppet Productions presents, "Myrna the Mermaid and the Golden Key", Thursday, March 31 at 3:30pm, at the Springfield Public Library. The puppet show tells the story of Myrna the Mermaid who finds a golden key and a treasure map during her daily dive. The audience will participate in this fun nautical adventure, as Myrna swims around the world. The program is free and is for all ages.

Portland-based Penny's Puppet Productions will be the final performance of the Springfield Library's 2011 Springfield Puppet Festival. The show is sponsored by the Springfield Utility Board. Complete information about the festival and other children's events are available at wheremindsgrow.org/programskids.html.

What: Penny's Puppets presents, "Myrna the Mermaid and the Golden Key".

When: Thursday, March 31, at 3:30pm

Where: The lobby of the Springfield Public Library

Additional Information: Contact Barbara Thompson, (541) 726-3766