SpringFilm: MOVIE & DISCUSSION SERIES AT THE LIBRARY

Adults are invited to watch Spike Lee's Crooklyn and stay for a discussion

On Saturday, April 9, 2011 at 2pm, the community is invited to a monthly film series at the Springfield Library called SpringFilm. April's screening will be Spike Lee's film Crooklyn (1994). After watching the film, audience members are invited to stay for a facilitated discussion.

Crooklyn, is Spike Lee's semi-autobiographical look at life in a Brooklyn family during the 1970s. A loving but careworn mother (Alfre Woodard) struggles to make ends meet and make a home for her unemployed husband and their five children. 114 minutes.

The film and discussion will be held in the Library Meeting Room; free.
