

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

March 3, 2011

Contacts: Niel Laudati 541-726-3780

~ Media Advisory ~

Klamath Indian Legend Puppet Show At the Springfield Library

Families are invited to this free Puppet Festival event

Gamelan Sari Pandhawa will present a musical puppet show at the Springfield Public Library on Tuesday, March 8th, at 4:00 pm. The Eugene-based group will tell the Klamath Indian legend “How Crater Lake Came to Be” using Javanese wayang kuli, the traditional music and puppetry of Java. The program is recommended for ages 6 and older. The show is part of the Springfield Library’s 2011 Puppet Festival.

All Springfield Puppet Festival events are free. Complete information about the festival is available at wheremindsgrow.org/programskids.html.

What: Gamelan Sari Pandhawa presents “How Crater Lake Came to Be”.

When: Tuesday, March 8, 4:00 pm.

Where: The Lobby of the Springfield Public Library

Additional Information: Contact Barbara Thompson at 541-726-3766