WORKSHOP KIDS PRESENT “THE WIZARD OF OZ” AT THE SPRINGFIELD PUBLIC LIBRARY

Families are invited to this free Puppet Festival event

The Springfield Puppet Festival Kids present “The Wizard of Oz” at the Springfield Public Library on Saturday, March 19th, at 2:00 pm. The eight to thirteen year old students have been attending the library’s Puppet Making Workshop, at which they created original puppets, and the show, under the leadership of Celeste Rose, of Oregon Fantasy Theatre.

The program is recommended for all ages. The workshop and puppet show are sponsored by the Springfield Arts Commission as part of the library’s 2011 Springfield Puppet Festival.

All Springfield Puppet Festival events are free. Complete information about the festival is available at wheremindsgrow.org/programskids.html.
