DREAMS: OUR FORGOTTEN SPIRITUAL LANGUAGE

This great presentation will be given on Tuesday, January 23rd at 7:00 p.m. in the Library Meeting Room in Springfield City Hall. The free one-hour program, by Springfield resident Peter Frisch, will provide an introduction to how dreams and spirituality are interrelated and can provide invaluable insight into our inner lives.

Presenter background:

Frisch, a self-styled renaissance man, is both an insurance agent and a priest who has studied Jungian dream analysis and has taught dream work and spiritual direction in retreat centers around the country. He is author of the book "A Moment of Great Power: Sacramental Prayer and Generational Healing." Frisch also teaches seminars on "Raising Financially Responsible Children" in local schools, and volunteers with the Springfield Chamber of Commerce and the Springfield Museum.

The program on January 23rd is sponsored by the Springfield Public Library Adult Services Department. For more information, please contact Jenny Peterson at 726-2234.

The Springfield Library is located at 225 5th Street.
