LIBRARY HOSTS MUSICAL CONCERT FOR ALL AGES

Free concert is part of Library's Ongoing Centennial Author and Music Series

All ages are invited to attend a free concert by local musicians Mike & Carleen McCornack on Saturday, August 23 at 1:00 p.m. at the Springfield City Hall Fountain Plaza, located at 225 5th St.

The husband-and-wife duo of Mike & Carleen McCornack has been delighting audiences of all ages for over thirty years with their unique style of vocal music and acoustic guitar. They have played extensively within the Eugene-Springfield area and throughout the Northwest, and have produced numerous musical CDs for both children and adults.

Thanks to generous donations from the community, the Centennial Author & Music Series is free for the public and hosted by the Springfield Public Library. The monthly series will be held throughout 2008.

What: Free musical concert for all ages

When: Saturday, August 23, 1:00 p.m.
