A TRAVELER'S TALES AT THE SPRINGFIELD LIBRARY

Storyteller Yvonne Young will share stories of China, India and Thailand

On Tuesday, Jan. 19 at 7pm, storyteller Yvonne Young will present stories for adults with “A Traveler’s Tales: Storytelling in China, India and Thailand” as part of the “Springfield Library Foundation Author and Music Series.”

Young has been telling stories since the 1980s when she was inspired by a storytelling workshop. According to Young, “Through telling and working with stories, I found myself, and my own voice. When I tell stories, I am offering myself as well as the stories I tell to my listeners, providing them the opportunity to connect with the story through the filter of their own experience and imagination.”

The “Traveler’s Tales” are a mixture of original and traditional stories inspired by Young’s travels in Asia.

The Springfield Library Foundation is the sponsor for the “Author and Music Series.” Admission is free.
