YOUNG ARTISTS WIN SPRINGFIELD LIBRARY BOOKMARK CONTEST

Winners' designs are professionally printed and available in the library

The Springfield Public Library has selected nine young artists as the winners of the 2011 Children's Bookmark Contest. The winners will be congratulated by Mayor Christine Lundberg and the city council meeting on Monday, December 5, 7:00pm, at the Springfield Council Chambers at City Hall.

The Springfield Public Library has held a bookmark contest for 31 years. This year five hundred and thirty three students entered the contest. The designs will be displayed at the library through January. The winning bookmarks are professionally printed and will be available in the library.

The 2011 winners are Trace Coven, first grade, Brattain Elementary; Ryan Evangelho, second grade, Centennial Elementary; Alexis Briggs, third grade, Thurston Elementary; Kate Walkup, fourth grade, home school; Carlos Lopez, fifth grade, Centennial Elementary; Carolina Garcia, fifth grade, Brattain Elementary; Noah Cramer, sixth grade, home school, Anne Walkup, seventh grade, home school; and Hope Craig, eighth grade, Briggs Middle.
