

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

December 8, 2011

Contacts: Niel Laudati 541-726-3780

~ Media Advisory ~

WINTER BREAK PROGRAMS AT THE SPRINGFIELD PUBLIC LIBRARY

Preschoolers through teens will find plenty to keep them busy at the Springfield Public Library. All programs are free, all the time.

- Cuentos, Spanish language storytime, Saturday, December 17, 1pm. stories, songs and fun with Latino Liaison, Emily, ages 0-6.
- Steampunk Creature Creations for Teens, Tuesday, December 20, 1-3pm. Use recycled gadgets and fabric to create imaginative, 19th century-style creatures. The library will provide all supplies. Registration required, 541-726-3766, or at the library. For middle and high schoolers.
- Jammie Storytime, Tuesday, December 20, 7pm. Come in your pajamas for an evening of stories. All ages welcome.
- Preschool Storytime and Lapsit Storytime, every Wednesday, 10am. Stories, songs, fingerplay fun and crafts. Babies through preschoolers are welcome.
- The Reptileman at the Library! Thursday, December 22, two shows, at 1 and 3 pm. Meet and learn about all kinds of reptiles. All ages welcome.
- Family Music Time with Kris Olsen of Do Re Play, Tuesday, December 27, 1 pm. All ages welcome.
- Lego Club, Thursday, December 29, 2-4pm. The library will supply the Legos and Duplos, and display everyone's creations. For ages 2- 13.

What: Library Programs for Kids during Winter Break

When: Winter Break

Where: Springfield Public Library

Additional Information: wheremindsgrow.org/programs.html, or contact Barbara Thompson at (541) 726-3766