WORLD FAMOUS HARLEM GLOBETROTTER VISITS “THE SIMPSON’S COUCH” AT SPRINGFIELD MUSEUM

Local Youth Join Globetrotter in the “Real” Springfield as Team Prepares For Games in Corvallis, Redmond and Medford

In celebration of the recent news that “The Simpson’s” true hometown is Springfield, OR, world famous Harlem Globetrotter Wun “The Shot” Versher will join local youth at the Springfield Museum to visit “The Simpson’s Couch.”

Before spinning basketballs next to a larger-than-life Homer Simpson, Versher will talk to local youth at the Museum about the history of the Globetrotters.

Versher is spreading goodwill throughout Oregon prior to games in Corvallis (April 26), Redmond (April 27), and Medford (April 28).

The Globetrotters have their own connection with “The Simpson’s” television series. Krusty the Clown famously placed an ill-advised wager on the Washington Generals. See the classic clip at <http://youtu.be/3Xu5cQlum38>.

Tickets to see the Globetrotters in Central and Southern Oregon are available at harlemglobetrotters.com/.
