TEEN Workshop: Storytelling through Comics

Free two-hour workshop for teens ages 13-18

On Thursday, November 8, 2012, from 2-4, teens ages 12-18 are invited to the Springfield Public Library to learn about Storytelling through Comics. Attendance is free. This is a no school day for Springfield Public Schools.

The two-hour workshop will be led by Elizabeth Blue. Ms. Blue recently won a Graphic Literature Prize for 2011 and her first Graphic Novel was recently published. Participants will spend time looking at comics and discussing the art of storytelling in comics. The class will then focus on creating their own comic spread, first as a rough draft which they will then ink over to create a final draft.

What: Teen Storytelling Through Comics Workshop with Elizabeth Blue

When: Friday, November 8, 2012, from 2-4 pm

Where: Springfield Library Meeting Room, 225 5th St. Springfield, OR
