

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

November 20, 2012

Contacts: Niel Laudati 541-726-3780

~ Media Advisory ~

YOUNG ARTISTS WIN SPRINGFIELD LIBRARY BOOKMARK CONTEST

All entries are displayed in the library

The Springfield Public Library has selected eight young artists as the winners of the 2012 Children's Bookmark Contest. The winners were congratulated by Mayor Christine Lundberg at the regular the city council meeting on Monday, November 19.

The Springfield Public Library has held a bookmark contest for 32 years. This year a record breaking 1,560 students entered the contest. The designs will be displayed at the library through January. The winning bookmarks are professionally printed and will be available in the library.

This year's winners are:

1st grade: Aerin Sharp, Two Rivers-Dos Rios Elementary

2nd grade: Kistena deSully, Ridgeview Elementary

3rd grade: Andrew Johnson, Thurston Elementary

4th grade: Izabella Burnett, Page Elementary

5th grade: Iree Holden, Mt. Vernon Elementary

6th grade: Alexandra Yost, Briggs Middle School

7th grade: Leighanna Huston, Thurston Middle School

8th grade: Emma Wright, Briggs Middle School

What: Children's Bookmark Contest Winners announced & entries exhibited

When: Now

Where: Springfield Public Library

Additional Information: Contact Barbara Thompson at (541) 726-3766