STORYTELLING EVENT AT SPRINGFIELD PUBLIC LIBRARY

Featuring stories about growth and an open mic

Calling all storytellers! Share your five or ten-minute story on the theme “Growth.” On Tuesday, March 1, 2016 from 6:00-8:00pm Springfield Public Library will host a storytelling event with featured storytellers and an open mic in the Library’s reading room. We welcome storytellers of all levels as we celebrate stories shared in community. Bring a story to share or join us for an evening of the art and craft of stories told live.

Refreshments provided; held inside the library.

The event is part of the Springfield Library Foundation’s Arts, Culture & Education programming at the Springfield Public Library. The Springfield Library Foundation is a charitable non-profit dedicated to enhancing library services in Springfield.

More about Year of Stories:

A Year of Stories is made possible through a generous grant from the Lane County Cultural Coalition. Our program brings you some of the best storytellers from Oregon right to your library to share their storytelling talents, unique cultural perspectives, and highly entertaining tales with you. Programs occur once monthly from February to December. As always, all programs are free and open to the public

What: Share Your Story event, part of the Year of Stories series

When: Tuesday, March 1, 2016 from 6-8pm
