To whom it may concern,

The fact that I am even writing this letter is crazy. Trudy Logan is by far the nicest and sweetest person you will ever meet. She does not deserve any of this.

She is a fixture for the Springfield community and her "Along Came Trudy" property is simply a magical place that I hope everyone gets a chance to experience.

She is simply trying to pay the bills by being her own boss. What is wrong with that?

Anyone who truly knows her will agree. Weddings, birthdays, community events, garage sales, family reunions. You name it, she does it. And all with pure joy and fun with only the best intentions at heart.

In her 4 years now (I think) I would love to know how many times the police have been called to her property?
My guess: Zero.

Please don't let one or two crazy neighbors ruin this property for the rest of us.

Please feel free to contact me further with any questions you may have. Go Trudy!
