SpringFilm: MOVIE & DISCUSSION SERIES AT THE LIBRARY

Adults are invited to watch the film Rushmore and stay for a discussion

On Saturday, September 10, 2011 at 2pm, the community is invited to a monthly film series at the Springfield Library called SpringFilm. September's screening will be of the Wes Anderson film, Rushmore. After watching the movie, audience members are invited to stay for a facilitated discussion.

In this coming-of-age comedy, a fifteen-year-old high school student has accomplished just about everything with the exception of getting a girl. In his typical grandiose fashion, he decides to remedy the situation by setting his sights on a seemingly unattainable catch – one of the teachers at Rushmore Academy. He turns to the father (Bill Murray) of a classmate for advice, who later becomes a rival for her affections. Directed by Wes Anderson. 1998, 93 minutes.

The event is held in the Library Meeting Room; free.
