CHILDREN'S BOOKMARK CONTEST AT THE SPRINGFIELD PUBLIC LIBRARY

Young artists are invited to enter their bookmark designs in the contest. All entries will be displayed in the library.

The Springfield Public Library's Bookmark Contest is underway. Children from kindergarten through eighth grade may enter. The library will chose eight winners. The winning designs will be professionally printed and available at the library. All entries will be displayed. The winners will be congratulated by the Springfield mayor and city council on Monday, December 5, at 7:00pm.

Children should create original designs on the library's entry form, using colored markers or pencils. Entry forms may be picked up at the library or downloaded from the web page at wheremindsgrow.org/kids.html. Bring entries to the library by 8:00 pm, Monday, October 31. The designs should be about books, reading, libraries, or the 2011 theme, "Dream big – read".

What: Children's Bookmark Contest for grades kindergarten through eighth.

When: Entry forms are available at the library. Entries should be returned to the library by Monday, October 31.

Where: Entries available at the Springfield Public Library and on the library's web page, wheremindsgrow.org/kids.html. Entries should be returned to the library.
