MIKE CURTIS, AUTHOR READING

*Curtis will read from and sign his new book, Memories of a Musician in Mexico

On Tuesday, January 31, 2012 at 6:30pm at the Springfield Library, popular jazz and klezmer performer Mike Curtis will read from and sign his book, Memories of a Musician in Mexico. Curtis taught at OSU and was a longtime member of the Corvallis Symphony. He is now a member of Eugene Symphony and a well-known composer of woodwind chamber music. His book is about his playing days and travels throughout Mexico.

Between tales about working with a Mexican orchestra and his dozens of journeys sharing his favorite places with friends and family, he will play the sax, clarinet and bassoon tunes he wrote while living there. The program is free.
