

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

March 19, 2012

Contacts: Niel Laudati 541-726-3780

~ Media Advisory ~

PENNY'S PUPPETS AT THE SPRINGFIELD LIBRARY

Springfield Library presents this free event for the whole family

Penny's Puppet Productions presents, "Basil the Bookworm's Trip Around the World!", Tuesday, March 27, at 2:00pm, at the Springfield Public Library. The puppet show tells the story of Basil, a shy and studious monster who love to read. She loves all the different places she can visit just by opening a book. Join Basil as she discovers new friends and cultures and finds strengths in herself that she never knew she had. . The program is free and is for all ages.

Portland-based Penny's Puppet Productions will perform as part of the Springfield Library's Springfield Puppet Festival. The show is sponsored by the Springfield Utility Board. Complete information about the festival and other children's events are available at wheremindsgrow.org/programskids.html.

What: Penny's Puppets presents, "Basil the Bookworm's Trip Around the World"
When: Tuesday, March 27, at 2:00pm
Where: The lobby of the Springfield Public Library
Additional Information: Contact Barbara Thompson, (541) 726-3766

-30-

