

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

May 29, 2012

Contacts: Niel Laudati 541-726-3780

~ Media Advisory ~

FOLKTALES FROM THAILAND:
STORYTELLER AT THE SPRINGFIELD
PUBLIC LIBRARY

World famous storyteller Wajuppa Tossa will entertain all ages with Folktales from Thailand, at 4:00pm, Tuesday, June 5, at the Springfield Public Library. The program is free and is for all ages.

Dr Tossa is both a performer and educator of the art of storytelling. In 1995, she founded the Mahasarakham University storytelling project in Thailand, which actively promotes the preservation and revitalization of local dialects and cultural heritage through the art of storytelling.

What: Folktales from Thailand

When: Tuesday, June 5, 4:00pm

Where: Springfield Public Library's Meeting Room

Additional Information: wheremindsgrow.org/programskids.html, or contact Barbara Thompson at (541) 726-3766