AWARD-WINNING COLUMNIST BOB WELCH AT THE SPRINGFIELD LIBRARY

A reading and Q&A with the popular local columnist

On Tuesday, November 13, 2012 at 6pm, newspaper columnist Bob Welch will visit the Springfield Library for a book reading.

Welch is a speaker, author, award-winning columnist and teacher who has served as an adjunct professor of journalism at the University of Oregon in Eugene.

Three new Welch books will hit the shelves in late 2012: Fifty-Two Little Lessons from It's a Wonderful Life (Nashville: Thomas Nelson); Resolve: From WWII Bataan, the Story of a Soldier, a Flag, and a Promise Kept. (New York: Penguin's Berkley Books); and Cascade Summer: My Adventure on Oregon's Pacific Crest Trail.

Held in the Library Meeting Room; refreshments provided.
