AUTHOR READING BY ARTHUR MOKIN

Local author will read from his latest novel

On Saturday, January 12, 2013 at 1pm, Arthur Mokin will read from his latest book, Meribah, a love story set in ancient Egypt told against the narrative of the Bible's Book of Exodus. A Kirkus review calls his story, "A tale of the Exodus that brings Israel's prophet and people to life."

Mr. Mokin is a producer, writer and director of documentary films. His first book was IRONCLAD: The Monitor & the Merrimack.

The reading will include explicit language. Held in the Library Meeting Room; books will be available for purchase.
