DISASTER PREPAREDNESS WORKSHOP

Helpful guidance offered for preparing for emergency situations

On Saturday, February 9, 2013 from 1:30-4pm, trainer Isa Aviad will offer a free community information session discussing the basics of disaster preparedness, including a hands-on presentation of supplies.

Participants will learn the importance of not only having the basics, but also the importance of evaluating what your particular needs are for your specific situation. The primary focus on the workshop will be on the possibility of an earthquake affecting our area and how to prepare.

This is primarily an adult presentation; handouts will be given.

Pre-registration is required; please call the library at 541-726-3766 to sign up.
