FRIDAY FILM FORUM AT THE LIBRARY

2013 Academy Award-winning documentary short subject film, Inocente

The 2013 Academy award-winning documentary short subject, Inocente, will be screened on Friday, May 17, 2013 at 6pm as part of a documentary film series at the Springfield Library called Friday Film Forum. The series is a partnership with Willamalane and the Springfield Museum—and free!

The film follows the story of 15-year-old Inocente, a Latina who has lived homeless for the last nine years with her undocumented family. But her struggles have not prevented her from dreaming of becoming an artist, and this coming-of-age documentary shows her fierce determination to never surrender to the bleakness of her surroundings. 46 minutes; directed by Sean Fine and Andrea Nix Fine.

After watching the movie, audience members are invited to stay for a discussion. The conversation will be moderated by the director of the Springfield Museum, Jim Cupples. Refreshments will be served. The event is held in the Library Meeting Room. Please call the library for information about the film.
