SPRINGFILM AT THE WILDISH THEATER

A FREE monthly film & discussion program in downtown Springfield will show the documentary, Go Tigers!

The monthly film and discussion series, SpringFILM, will screen its next documentary at the Wildish Theater on Wednesday, November 6, 2013 at 6pm. The featured film is Go Tigers!, a behind-the-scenes chronicling of a remarkable season for the Massillon Tigers high school football team, played out in a small rustbelt town that draws its identity from football. Directed by Kenneth A. Carlson; rated R; 103 minutes; 2001.

Go Tigers! will be introduced by Jim Fryback, a Springfield high school coach and Bruce Coldren, former Lowell coach and athletic director. After the film, an audience discussion will be moderated by Jim Cupples, director of the Springfield Museum.

The program is free to attend and coordinated by a partnership among the Springfield Library, the Springfield Museum and Willamalane Park and Recreation District.

Documentaries are the focus of the series. Upcoming SpringFILM screenings are: Exit Through the Gift Shop, Monday, December 2, 2013 and When We Were Kings, Wednesday, January 15, 2014.
