Tween Scene at the Springfield Public Library
Make & Eat: Modeling chocolate

You've heard of modeling clay, right? Well this is modeling chocolate. Mold it, roll it, cut it and sculpt it to create a beautiful work of art and then... devour it. Join us at the Springfield Public Library on Monday, February 2nd at 4:30. It's free and all supplies will be provided. Tweens, ages 9-13, are invited to drop-in, hang-out, have fun and enjoy a snack.

The Library offers a weekly gathering for tweens and/or teens every Monday at 4:30. Tween scene is generally held on the first Monday.

Make & Take Art @ the Library: Magical Valentines!

Join us on Friday, February 6, 2015 from 2-3pm in the Library Meeting Room to make some magical valentines for your friends and family. We'll be using wax resist painting to create magical candy heart chains and cards that reveal their message before your eyes! This is a great program for all ages, preschoolers (with an adult's help, of course) all the way through middle school. No registration is required and you can make as many valentines as you would like. See you there!
