NaNoWriMo Novel Plotting Workshop

Wordcrafters in Eugene Presents Free Writing Class at the Library

On Monday, October 12, 2015 from 5:30-8:00pm, Springfield Public Library will host a free writing workshop presented by Wordcrafters in Eugene. This fast-paced 2-hour plotting workshop is offered in anticipation of National Novel Writing Month (NaNoWriMo). NaNoWriMo is a month-long event that encourages kids and adults to tackle the challenge of writing a novel in November. Participants pledge to write 50,000 words in a month, starting from scratch and finishing by November 30. For more information, visit www.nanowrimo.org.

Led by Daryll Lynne of Wordcrafters in Eugene, workshop participants will be guided through all aspects of planning out a novel using Joseph Campbell's Hero's Journey, 3-act structure, and a screen-writing card trick. All adults and teens are invited to sign up for this free workshop to learn tips and tricks to survive writing a novel in a month, or any novel project.

The class size is limited to 20 and will be held in the Library Meeting Room inside Springfield City Hall. Please sign-up at the library's reference desk or by calling 541-726-3766.

About Daryll Lynne:

Daryll Lynne began her writing career as a playwright with the performing Arts Conservatory in Colorado, where she also taught theatre and play writing to youth. She has an MFA in fiction from Purdue University. As the Executive Director for Wordcrafters in Eugene, she regularly teaches creative writing workshops. She also presents workshops at Mid-Valley Willamette Writers.
