PRESCHOOL FUN WITH ART & SCIENCE AT THE SPRINGFIELD PUBLIC LIBRARY

Spooooooky Sounds

It is starting to sound like Halloween! We will explore the science of sound and have a fun time with spooky books, songs and a science activity. Join us on Thursday, October 15th at 10:30 a.m. in the Library Meeting Room. Children should come dressed for messy craft projects and be accompanied by a caregiver. The program is free. All supplies will be provided by the library. This program is intended for children ages 3-6.

Early Literacy Classes for Kids & Grownups

Join us for six weeks of Early Literacy Storytime fun. This series of workshops is for kids ages 3-6 and their grownups. Each week we focus on a different element of early literacy: talking, singing, reading, writing, and playing. There is lots of fun for kids and valuable information and resources for adults. The class is completely FREE! The workshops will be held each Monday at 10:30 a.m. beginning October 12th and running until November 16th.

The Tell Tale Heart & Other Stories

Haunting Tales by Chris Leebrick

Part of Springfield Public Library's Year of Stories

On Saturday, October 17th we are thrilled (and terrified) to be hosting award-winning storyteller Chris Leebrick for a chilling performance of The Tell Tale Heart by Edgar Allen Poe along with other tales at 3:00pm here at Springfield Public Library. Leebrick is a master storyteller for all ages, but this performance is strictly for teens and grownups. Embrace the October season with Leebrick and the Springfield Public Library. No registration is required and, as always, this program is FREE and open to the public!
