PLANK TOWN PRESENTS: CULT CINEMA!

MARCH SPRINGFILM @ THE WILDISH THEATER

A FREE monthly film & discussion in downtown Springfield brought to you by Plank Town, the Springfield Library Foundation and Willamalane

The monthly film and discussion event, Plank Town Presents: Springfilm, continues its Cult Cinema series in March. Through August 2016, Springfilm features monthly screening of films that may be bizarre, may have been overlooked at their initial release, or may just be your favorite. The Springfield Library Foundation and Willamalane Park & Recreation District are also partners in this free monthly community event. Please join us at the Wildish Theater on Thursday, March 10 at 6:30pm for a screening of Labyrinth.

Labyrinth, whimsical, musical and full of Jim Henson's puppet creations, has long been a favorite of many children and nostalgic adults. In the film, a teenage girl (played by Jennifer Connelly) is overwhelmed with her infant brother's crying and wishes for him to be taken away. When the Goblin King (played by David Bowie) grants her wish, she is left with only 13 hours to solve a labyrinth and rescue her baby brother. Directed by Jim Henson; 101minutes; 1986.

The movie and discussion are free to attend. The ongoing film series is presented by Plank Town Restaurant and Brewery and coordinated by a partnership with the Springfield Library and Willamalane Park and Recreation District.

The Cult Cinema series continues: Thursday, April 7, 2016 at 6:30pm with American Movie.
