READ TO A DOG

at Springfield Public Library

Emerging and struggling readers and young dog lovers are invited to the Springfield Public Library between 10 a.m. and noon on Saturday, November 19 to read to a dog from Greenhill! Reading to a dog is a great way to interact with animals in a safe environment while honing your reading skills and practicing with a gentle, fuzzy, non-judgmental audience. There is no registration for this program; time slots are first come, first serve. This program is also collaborating with Cuentos con Kristen (Kristen's Bilingual Storytime) for this date, only, at 11 a.m.
