To Whom it May Concern,

In the spring of 2014 I was working as at a Starbucks where Jim Donovan was a regular customer. We would often chat about our personal lives and this particular day he had asked me which venue I had chosen for my upcoming wedding in June. I replied that I was having it at Along Came Trudy and then began describing her beautiful location. Mr. Donovan abruptly interrupted me and told me to stop describing her "illegal venue". He then continued by informing me that he was investigating her because she did not have the proper permits to have such a venue in a "residential area". I told him about all of the precaution she had taken to insure she be respectful of her neighbors and their privacy. One of which being a contract she required we sign prior booking her venue, which included many rule related to the boundaries of her property and requiring us to be respectful of the neighbors privacy. Mr. Donovan then when into detail about the boundary lines of the property. I ended the conversation at that point because I was more than a little unset that Mr. Donovan was threatening to shut down the wonderful venue I was planning my wedding at.
