DEADLINE EXTENDED FOR SHORT STORY WRITING CONTEST FOR TEENS

Springfield Public Library invites teens to write an original short story

Young adults in grades 6-12 are encouraged to write a short story for the Springfield Public Library's Teen Short Story Writing Contest. The story must include the sentence: What if the note is wrong? The new deadline is Monday, Dec. 1 at 5 pm. Entries must include a submission form available in the library or online at <http://www.wheremindsgrow.org/teens.html>.

First, second and third-place prizes will be given in two categories: Middle School and High School. KeyBank and Springfield Public Library are the event sponsors. Winning entries will be published on the library's website and in a collection available in the library. Prizes include duffle bags, books, journals and gift certificates.
