SPRING POETRY READING AT THE SPRINGFIELD PUBLIC LIBRARY

Poets KatSue Grant, Michael Hanner and Catherine McGuire will read

April is National Poetry Month and in celebration, the Springfield Public Library continues the “Author and Music Series” in conjunction with the Eugene/Springfield chapter of the Oregon State Poetry Association.

Three accomplished poets will read at this event. KatSue Grant is a published journalist, essayist, poet, short story and reminiscences writer and novelist since age eleven. Michael Hanner is a member of the Lane Literary Guild’s Red Sofa Poets. His poetry has appeared in Denali, Tiger’s Eye, and in several anthologies. Catherine McGuire is a writer, exhibiting artist, therapist and instructor. She has published 99 poems in 64 magazines.

The Springfield Library Foundation is the generous sponsor for the “Author and Music Series.” Admission is free and refreshments will be served. Takes place in the Library Meeting Room.
