Chelsea Cain Reads at the Springfield Public Library

New York Times bestselling author to read her newest novel

Portland author Chelsea Cain will read from her newest mystery novel, Evil At Heart, in the Springfield Public Library Meeting Room at 7 p.m. on Tuesday, September 15. The book continues a series which includes Heartsick (2007) and Sweetheart (2008). Copies of all three titles will be available for purchase and signing.

Background: Chelsea Cain was born in 1972, lived the first few years of her life on a hippie commune in Iowa, and grew up in Bellingham, Washington.

Her first novel featuring Detective Archie Sheridan and serial killer Gretchen Lowell, HEARTSICK, was a New York Times bestseller in both hardcover and paperback and has been translated into over 20 languages. The follow-up in the series—SWEETHEART--also a NYT bestseller--is available in stores now. The third installment, EVIL AT HEART, will be released on September 1, 2009.

Chelsea is a former columnist for The Oregonian, and a regular contributor to The New York Times Book Review. She lives in Portland, Oregon, with her family.
