READERS INVITED TO DISCUSS STUBBORN
TWIG
AS PART OF OREGON READS 2009 PROGRAM

The Springfield Public Library invites readers of Lauren Kessler's Stubborn Twig: Three Generations in the Life of a Japanese American Family, to talk about the book together.

Stubborn Twig, was chosen as the book for all Oregon to read in honor of the state's 2009 sesquicentennial. Oregon Reads 2009 is a community reads program that will take place in nearly every public library and in every county in Oregon during the state's sesquicentennial, January through April of 2009.

What: Group discussion of the Oregon Reads 2009 selection, Stubborn Twig

When: Tuesday, February 24, 2009. 7:00 p.m.

Where: Springfield Public Library Meeting Room (located in City Hall at 225 Fifth St.)
