

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

February 3, 2009

Contacts: Niel Laudati 541.726.3780

~ Media Advisory ~

“WHY I LOVE MY LIBRARY” CONTEST OFFERED AT THE SPRINGFIELD PUBLIC LIBRARY

All ages are eligible to enter and win.

Tell the Springfield Public Library why you love your library, and you could be a winner in the “Why I Love My Library” contest. Entries are due by 5:00 pm, February 14. Everyone who participates will be entered in a drawing for prizes for children, teens and adults. The prizes are on display in the library.

The library will accept poems, essays, or stories of 100 words or less. The library will also accept drawings or other art forms. All ages, children, teens and adults may enter, and all types of creativity are encouraged. Entry forms are available at the library or at the library’s website: wheremindsgrow.org. The library will display the entries through March.

What: Why I Love the Library Contest

When: Entries due 5:00 pm, February 14

Where : Springfield Public Library

Additional Information: Contact Barbara Thompson at 726-3766