LIBRARY STORYTIME AT THE FARMERS' MARKET

Children are invited for stories, music, and a treat at the Springfield Farmer's Market

Children are invited to attend storytime at the Springfield Farmer's Market this summer. Springfield Library storytellers will lead children in a lively and interactive program of stories and music, followed by delicious market treats. Plus every child who attends will get a coupon for a free book at the library's Youth Services Desk. Market Stories are held every Friday through August 27 at 3:00 pm. All ages are welcome.

What: Stories at the Market

When: Every Friday at 3:00.

Where: At the Springfield Farmers' Market, between 5th and 6th Street, on Main St.
