LIBRARY STORYTIME AT THE FARMERS' MARKET

Children are invited for stories, music, and a treat at the Springfield Farmer's Market

Children are invited to attend story time at the Springfield Farmer's Market this summer. Springfield Library storytellers will lead children in a lively and interactive program of stories and music, followed by delicious market treats. Plus, every child who attends will get a coupon for a surprise at the library's Youth Services Desk. The program will be Fridays, June 19 – August 27, when the market opens at 3:00 pm. All ages are welcome.

What: Stories at the Market

When: Fridays, June 19 – August 27, 3:00.

Where: At the Springfield Farmers' Market, between 5th and 6th Street, on Main St.
