

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

June 22, 2010

Contacts: Niel Laudati 541.726.3780

~ Media Advisory ~

KIDS' FLEA MARKET AT THE SPRINGFIELD PUBLIC LIBRARY

Kids sell kid stuff to other kids at this free program

Children are welcome to buy, sell or barter toys, crafts and books at the Kids' Flea Market at the Springfield Library, Thursday, July 1, 11:00 am-1:00 pm. Young entrepreneurs should bring their own change, table or blanket. The event takes place on the Fountain Plaza outside the library. The flea market is for children ages 17 and younger. An adult should accompany children younger than ten. Sorry, no food may be sold. The program is part of the Springfield Library's Summer Reading Program.

What: Kids' Flea Market

When: Thursday, July 1, 11am-1:00 pm

Where: Springfield City Hall Fountain Plaza

Additional Information: Contact Barbara Thompson at 541-726-3766

-30-