CALL-TO-ARTISTS FOR SPRINGFIELD CITY HALL GALLERY SHOW

Artists invited to submit art inspired by details, views, events and people of Springfield

The Springfield Arts Commission is joining the celebration of Springfield's 125th birthday by putting on a show. Located outside the Springfield Public Library, a minimum of 500 people see the City Hall Gallery each day. The commission will accept adult submissions for its July 1-30 show in the City Hall Gallery with the theme: What Makes Springfield, Springfield? This can be art inspired by details, views, events, or the people of Springfield.

Artists need not be residents of Springfield. There is space for two- and three- dimensional work, although there are some size requirements. All work must arrive dry and ready to hang or display in cases. All work must adhere to the gallery's guidelines. Gallery guidelines are available on the commission's website at www.springfieldartscommission.org.

Sales are encouraged, although artists may display work that is not for sale. Each artist will be responsible for his or her own sales. There is no commission on sales or any entry fees.

Please pre-register to show by calling or emailing Carrie Schindele-Cupples, Arts Commission Liaison, at (541) 726-2237 or scupples@ci.springfield.or.us.

All submissions must be delivered to the City Hall Gallery on Wednesday, June 30, 2010 between 3-6pm. Artists must arrange to have artwork picked up on Saturday, July 31 between 12-3pm.
