DOCUMENTARY SCREENING ABOUT STIEG LARSSON

Free showing about the author of The Girl with the Dragon Tattoo

On Saturday, Nov. 13, 2010 at 3pm, the Springfield Public Library is having a free screening of the documentary Millennium: The Story about Swedish author Stieg Larsson. Larsson wrote the Millennium trilogy which begins with the book The Girl with the Dragon Tattoo. 15 million of his books have sold worldwide, with 25 translations in over 40 countries and movie adaptations.

This portrait of Stieg Larsson reveals the story of his life. He died at age 50 before his first novel was even published, but spent decades as a passionate journalist. The free showing is made possible by film distributor Music Box Films. It is 45 minutes in length.

The event will be held in the Library Meeting Room.
