SpringFilm: MOVIE & DISCUSSION SERIES AT THE LIBRARY

*Adults are invited to watch Be Kind Rewind and stay for a discussion*

On Saturday, May 14, 2011 at 2 pm, the community is invited to a monthly film series at the Springfield Library called SpringFilm. May's screening will be Be Kind Rewind featuring Mos Def and Jack Black. After watching the film, audience members are invited to stay for a facilitated discussion.

In Be Kind Rewind, when Jerry (Jack Black) becomes magnetized due to an accident at the local power plant, he accidentally erases all of the video tapes at the store where his friend (Mos Def) works. The pair re-enact and re-film every movie in the store, from The Lion King to Ghostbusters to Back to the Future in this comedy about the power of community. The film also features Danny Glover and Mia Farrow. 101 minutes; 2008. The film and discussion will be held in the Library Meeting Room; free.
