

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

November 30, 2010

Contacts: Niel Laudati 541-726-3780

~ Media Advisory ~

Holiday Native Flute Performance

John Sarantos presents a holiday concert for the Springfield Library Author & Music Series

On Tuesday, Dec. 14, 2010 at 7pm, the Springfield Library Author & Music Series presents a Native Flute performance by John Sarantos.

Mr. Sarantos will perform songs of the winter season on Native American flutes. He will play a variety of carols including, "Twas in the Moon of Wintertime," which is given credit for being the first carol written in the Native American language. He will intertwine the history and development of the native flute throughout his mini-concert.

Free admission to all library programs. The event will be held in the Library Meeting Room.

The Springfield Public Library Foundation sponsors the Author and Music Series.

What: A holiday Native Flute performance

When: Tuesday, Dec. 14, 2010 at 7pm

Where: Springfield Library Meeting Room, 225 5th St. Springfield, OR

Additional Information: Contact Carrie Schindele-Cupples at (541) 726-2237